

PASSENGERS CROWD 2 DEPARTING LINERS

Shipping Men Honor Capt. Finch of Baltic, Who Retires This Trip.

With every berth taken the Cunard liner Caronia and the White Star liner Baltic sailed yesterday for Queenstown and Liverpool. Between them the two liners carried 2,200 passengers.

The Baltic sailed dressed in flags in honor of her commander, Capt. William Finch, O. B. E., who will retire when he takes his ship into port in England. Capt. Finch, who commanded the Arctic when she was torpedoed off the Irish coast, has been at sea forty-six years. The Arctic, which was in dock as the Baltic nosed into the stream, also was decorated, and officials of the T. M. M. went to the pier to bid Capt. Finch good-by.

Also on board the Baltic were William E. Corey, Capt. Robert Dollar, a shipping man; Bishop William Lawrence of Massachusetts; Bishop Frederick Keator of Seattle and Bishop J. H. McCormick of Michigan. The bishops are bound for the Lambeth conference in London. Others aboard are Lord Dunmore, D. S. O., Charles and Benjamin Duven, Commissioner Thomas Estell, head of the Salvation Army in Chicago, and the Hon. Frederick Nichols.

Miss V. C. Gildersleeve, dean of Barnard College, sailed to attend a conference beginning July 5 at the University of London and later will attend the conference of the International Federation of University Women.

Miss Nell Butler, the English girl who changed her mind and fiancé while bound to Canada on the Royal George, sailed alone after being held by immigration officials on Ellis Island. The girl was met on board by Capt. Paul Miller, an English army officer with whom she fell in love while on her way to Canada to marry Capt. H. T. Ritchie, a Canadian officer. Capt. Miller said he had decided to remain here to look over a business proposition in Canada, but later will go to England to be married. Miss Butler was indignant concerning the poor facilities for ladies detained at Ellis Island.

"It was so filthy that I did not take off my clothes from the time I went there until I came back to the Caronia last night," she said. "I was placed in a room with twenty other women, some of them black, and had to sleep on a canvas bunk, one of a five bunk tier. The canvas was so dirty that when the person above moved the dirt scattered down on you. The food was unfit and unpalatable. Commissioner Wallis treated me with kindness, but others I complained to told me it was my own fault it was there."

Miss Fay Evelyn, the only English member of the present "Florodora" sextet, sailed to spend a short vacation in England and France.

SAGE TEA DANDY

TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.—Ado.
